IMMIGRATION RESTRICTIONS

Things that our Officer will not do (per PTPD Policy):

- Inquire or collect information about an individual's immigration status or place of birth unless under criminal investigation
- Provide information to federal immigration authorities for a noncriminal matter, except as required by law
- Provide non-publicly available personal information about an individual to federal immigration authorities in a non-criminal matter, except as required by state or federal law.
- Give federal immigration authorities access to interview individuals about a non-criminal matter while in our custody, except as required by state or federal law.

Things that our Officer will not do (continued):

- Allow a federal immigration authority to conduct an interview regarding federal immigration violations with a person who is in custody if the person has not consented in writing to be interviewed.
- Detain individuals solely for the purpose of determining their immigration status.
- Take a person into custody or hold a person is custody:
 - 1. Solely for the purpose of determining immigration status
 - 2. Based solely on a civil immigration warrant
 - 3. On an immigration hold request
